RENO, Nev. — Regular operation of an airplane in connection with the business of mining, believed to be the first attempt of this sort, is the plan of C. I. Eastman, general manager of a gold property near Minden. Eastman, an ace of the British Flying Corps during the World War, said he hoped to use the plane not only to travel 60 miles to the mine electric plant, but also for other "errands."

It is Eastman's claim that he will be able to accomplish in a day what with regular methods of travel would take nearly a week.

THREE MEN, BOY ARRESTED IN LIQUOR RAID

ALCOHOL TAKEN, POLICE SAY

"Casey" Vogel Restaurant is Visited Saturday

BOY "TOTES PACKAGE"

Officers Hide Five Hours in Shed Near Restaurant

With the arrest early Saturday morning of three men and a nine-year-old boy, the case of the "Casey" Vogel restaurant, 444 S. Main-st., police were successful in breaking up what they say is a well organized "ring" of liquor traffickers, who for the past two years have defied efforts of state and county prohibition officers to bring about their arrest and conviction.

Victims of the raid were J. F. "Casey" Vogel, 27, of 323 S. Jackson-st.; Victor Pellegrini, 26, of 624 S. McDonnell-st.; Bert Lawrence, 60, of 319 E. Elm and John Vogel, 9, Casey's son.

HIDE IN SHED
After watching the place for months and raiding it a score of times, success finally crowned the efforts of Police Officers Bernard Roney and Virgil Cook, who stationed themselves in a wood-shed in the rear of the restaurant at 3 a. m. Saturday and waited for their "chance."

About 7:30 a. m. Lawrence "unbarred" the rear door of the place and left it open while he mopped the floor. The two policemen watched Lawrence and Pellegrini working inside.

A few minutes later Vogel's nine-year-old son walked into the front door of the place with a package under his arm. The two officers rushed into the place, brushed Lawrence aside and seized the package.

"Fish," Pellegrini replied.
The package was opened and the "fish" proved to be a quart of alleged pure grain alcohol which, police say, was to be used in the manufacture of the morning "counter supply."

The two men and the boy were taken to police headquarters and John Vogel, proprietor of the place, was arrested a few minutes after while driving his automobile on Main-st.

Vogel, in a statement shortly after his arrest, claims that the "stuff" was for a hunting party to Ft. Reynolds. He announced that the boy had carried the bottle into the restaurant for the hunting party and not for sales purposes as alleged by police.

PRINCESS OHIO WINS HONORS AT LUNCHEON

Princess Ohio, participating in the big International Petroleum Exposition at Tulsa, continues to make friends by the thousand and walked away with honors Friday when she and other beauties at the exposition were guests at a Chamber of Commerce Luncheon.

Special dispatches from Tulsa say that the witty speech of Miss Ruth Patton, who is representing her state, was conceded to be the best of all by the assembly. All of the girls were called upon for remarks.

Miss Patton and the other state princesses were guests Friday at a reception at the home of J. B. Means of Tulsa, where each was presented with a gold, initialed vanity case.

The queen of the exposition will be named by judges next Wednesday, it is announced. The judges now are secretly at work and the girl having the highest number of points will be the winner in the contest. Their appearance on their floats, deportment and applause will be the determining factors in the decision.

These are being shown today and Sunday. They were made at the Deisel store, showing Miss Patton in her beautiful wardrobe supplied by that store and at the Pennsylvania depot as she boarded her train. They are conceded to be the best pictures of such an event ever made in Lima.

DOCTORS WAR ON INSURANCE ACT

Penal System Approved by British Physicians

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — The National Medical Union, which claims to speak for some 16,000 British physicians, is on the warpath against the panel system of medical treatment under the National Insurance Act.

The National Medical Union is now hard at work completing the case which it hopes to establish against the panel system, which is to be investigated in October by a Royal Commission whose membership includes Lord Lawrence, chairman. Sir John Anderson, Sir Humphrey Rolleston, Sir Alfred Watson, Sir Arthur Worley and Sir Andrew Duncan.

The union maintains that the panel system leads to inferior doctoring, that panel doctors are unable to give adequate attention to their long lists of patients and that the system is demoralizing and unbecomingly pauperizing. The fourth annual attack will be the most vigorous yet launched against this phase of the National Insurance Act. Its importance may be gauged by the fact that there are now 1,000,000 panel patients in England, Scotland and Wales.

One charge against the panel system is that the panel doctor, with an enormous list of panel patients, is usually too busy to give them adequate attention. ## AIRMEN TO RAID NEW YORK

Manhattan Repton to Be Attacked at Dayton Races

SPECTACULAR BILL IS ON

World Fliers Take Part in Events Today

WILBUR WRIGHT FLYING FIELD, DAYTON — (By United Press) — Speed and spectacle entertained today's crowd at the International Air Races.

Four entrants of the United States Army Air Service hope to set a new world mark for speed in the famous Pulitzer trophy race of four laps over a fifty kilometer course this afternoon.

Following close on this event was "the bombing of the skyline of New York," the most spectacular air demonstration thus far attempted by the army air service.

A fleet of fast pursuit planes and bombers, including the "Monster" Berlin, were to attack a huge replica of lower Manhattan, built of flimsy timbers and defended by a mass of observation and defense balloons.

Balloon pilots, equipped with parachutes, were to leap to safety as their bags were shot down by attacking enemy. Army air service officials desired to impress spectators with the horrors of an air raid and spared no expense to make the demonstration vivid.

The Curtiss pursuit plane, officials say, is the nation's best insurance against air raids. They were eager to make it plain that this country has only 18 such planes in its entire service.

A salute of aerial bombs greeted the arrival here of the six American "round-the-world" fliers who flew over from McCook Field on the other side of Dayton.

The globe-gridders came on by train last night from the Pacific coast and were guests of honor at the annual banquet of the National Aeronautic Association.

The Dayton Bicycle Club trophy was the only event on today's program for small planes. Nine aerial "divers" responded to the starter's horn. No plane entered would develop more than 19.7 horsepower. The distance was fifty miles over a ten mile course.

The other important racing event was the John Mitchell trophy for Curtiss P-W-8 type of planes with 450 horsepower motors. All entrants were officers in the army air service and they were to go four times around a fifty kilometer course, a total distance of 124.2 miles.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

DEAR MISS SUSIE: We are two girls fourteen years old and would like to have some of your advice.

We are both four feet, six inches tall and should wear our dresses. Would it be proper for us to go to the show with a boy friend once in a while?

Are silk scarfs good to wear in this winter? Three quarter length coats?

Please give me a recipe for a good candy?

How is my writing? May we write again, both of you.

Two HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS. Twelve inches from the floor would be a good length. I should be able to use it.

Not unless you have your mother's consent, girls. You are too young for that, I think.

Florence means bringing good news; Maryetta is a combination of Mary which means bitter, and Eta which means salt; Ethel means of noble birth; Estlin means good fortune; Kathryn means gift of God; Evelyn means life; Wilbur means protector; Charles means gift of God and Kathryn means pure.

Silk scarfs are not worn a great deal in the winter time, under a fur coat or heavy cloth coat. The scarfs are better, especially for sport wear.

Here is a particularly good recipe. I think. Do you like sea foam? To 3 cups of light brown sugar, add 1 cup boiling water. Dissolve the sugar and boil until thick. Then add 1 cup of butter from the fire, when it stops bubbling pour it on to the whites of two eggs which have been beaten stiff and dry. Then add 1 teaspoonful of vanilla and 1 cup of chopped walnut meats. Dredge from a teaspoon upon waxed paper.

Your writing is very good. Yes, write again, both of you.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY IS SOUVENIR HUNTER SCENE

LONDON — Many of the fine monuments of Westminster Abbey are being badly treated by the tourists who visit London's ancient edifice. Several of the monuments are missing fragments, such as fingers and toes, and from the walls themselves several bits have been broken off to satisfy the souvenir hunter.

The latest loss is the large spear head from this instrument carried by the figure of Death in the monument erected to the memory of a member of the Nightingale family. The theft, however, are gradually diminishing. This is due to the scarcity of suitable souvenirs, and the alertness of several new guards placed in the abbey.

LANDIS OUSTER DEMANDED BY BAN JOHNSON

Baseball Chief Seeking to Hush Up Scandal, American League President Charges—"Hell Is Going To Be Popping In Few Days," He Declares

CHICAGO—(By United Press)—Aroused by the rebuffs of Commissioner of Baseball Landis, Ban B. Johnson, president of the American league, has announced a finish fight on Landis. Charles A. Stoneham, principal owner of the New York Giants, and John McGraw, manager of the Giants. Johnson said he was determined to drive "corruption" out of organized baseball and announced he had instructed his attorneys to decide on a plan of action.

Johnson said he would not be satisfied until Landis, Stoneham and McGraw are out of baseball. Likewise, he wants the instant dismissal of all ball players who are connected in any way with crookedness in baseball.

Johnson is angry because Landis ignored his demand for cancellation of the world series in view of the confession of Jimmy O'Connell of the Giants, that he tried to bribe a Philly player to throw one of the last games played between the two teams.

REASONS GIVEN
"Hell is going to be popping in a few days," Johnson declared. "I will stand for no more nonsense and I know that the public is back of me in my demand that this whole mess be aired and the guilty ones punished."

"My reasons for demanding the retirement of Commissioner Landis from organized baseball are simply these: Landis, in the face of this scandal attending the winning of the National League pennant by New York and the reports concerning arrangements for the world series is deliberately seeking to hush things up. That is no way to deal with the situation."

"The facts concerning this scandal must be brought out. I am going to see that it is done. Landis looks to me like an irresponsible character. He hasn't the judgment in organized baseball of a ten year old."

Referring to his demand for the ousting of Stoneham and McGraw, Johnson said: "I feel that those are the names we hear every time there are reports of a scandalous nature cropping up in the game."

BELIEVES O'CONNELL
Johnson said he believed O'Connell when he said he was only the "goat" who was used to know who was behind the bribe offer.

"The players did not do it themselves," he said. "Suppose, for instance, that it would have been worth $150,000 to the Giants to get into the world series. Suppose some gambler or some men associated with them, wanted to make sure they would win the pennant and get into the series. It seems probable that the same gang that wanted the Giants to win the pennant by crooked means would also seek to corrupt the series itself. That's what we want to find out and you may rest assured that the men assisting me in this investigation are not going to be fooled, intimidated or called off."

Investigation also is being made of rumors of a disgraceful situation attending the 1922 world series, Johnson said.

"I am having these rumors investigated and I expect that they will be taken up later in a more thorough fashion," he said.

SEEKS DEEPER PROBE
Press) — In a fighting mood, Barney Dreyfus, Pirate owner, has gone to Washington to force a deeper probe into the baseball scandal that resulted in the expulsion of Jimmy O'Connell and "Coco" Dolan.

The referred to as a "crackpot" by John J. McGraw and advised to keep his shirt on Dreyfus thinks many more are involved in the bribe offer and plans to insist on a thorough investigation at a meeting of the baseball magnates to be held in Washington today or tomorrow.

At first aroused when his published statements that the world series would be called off were ignored, Barney had planned not to go, intending his absence as a sort of silent protest.

"But I changed my mind," said Dreyfus. "and if anyone wants to start anything with me I'll be glad to give them all the satisfaction they want."

"If this thing is not cleared up properly and to the entire satisfaction of the public I will be in favor of eliminating the world series for a time at least, as a growing menace to the best interests of the game."

"The series is being made too much of a big circus or show and in view of the present trend of things it has become a growing menace."

Referring to that "pugnacious gentleman," the "master mind" of the Giants who called him a "crackpot," Barney said this: "McGraw says I am still sore about the Pirate defeat in 1921. If all that happened in 1921 had been exposed, McGraw might not look very good. McGraw should be the last person to refer to 1921. But I am not going to talk about what happened then, nor am I going to get into an argument with him. He is not in my class."

The Pirates boss refused to comment on reports that he would join Ban Johnson, president of the American League in the fight to Commissioner Landis unimpaired power.

Private Post Organ Future Peace, Not Conflict

SCHOOL SYSTEM WRONG

Textbooks Give Wrong View on History, Post Says

An international agreement whereby in the laws of each country an educational clause would be inserted which would enforce the teaching in schools of the sinfulness of war is one way to international peace. Harold Post, better known as "Private Post," famous Canadian soldier, said Friday night in an address to the brotherhood of Market-Protestant church. Post used as the subject of his lecture that of his latest book, "The Inextricable Knot."

"To find the real cause of war," Post said, "one must go to the schools. The tremendous age in the life of human beings is between four and fourteen years and this period is spent largely in school, so that influences exercised there lay the foundation of the character of the grown man and the future nation. Man's views on war have not changed a bit in two thousand years, due largely to the glorification of national strife by the literature used in the common schools."

BEING WORKSHIPP
"Fathers and mothers know that war is an idle enterprise in which the lives of noble youth are lost, but the children cannot see it in that manner. They see pictures in their school books of great heroes and they feel in order to be great they get their share of prominence they too must fight in battle."

Instead of killing them about the questionable glory of war," Private Post said, "all them the horrors of war, and show war will be a thing of the past. They will cease to look forward to war as a thing in which to gain glory, but rather they will have a profound hatred for this most wicked and destructive thing which nations use to settle their little arguments."

Post stated that in textbooks of 60 countries he had visited, all of them said "their country is right" and give their school children a decidedly wrong impression concerning war.

"There has seldom been two wars in one generation," Post said. "This is proof that people do not want war when they know what it is. It is only the youth and middle-aged men of a country, those who have never taken part in war, that wish to fight."

This is the second time Post has visited Lima. In 1917, after he had been wounded at the front, he talked here in behalf of a Liberty Loan.

Post's lecture was the first of a series of six scheduled for the series of club of the church this winter. Harry L. 400 members was present at the meeting. A supper served by the women of the church, preceded Post's talk.

Dr. Robert MacGowan, a Presbyterian minister of Pittsburgh, will be the next speaker to appear before the club. He will be here Friday, November 7.

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT IS ISSUED BY DONAHAY

COLUMBUS — Governor Donahay, who has as yet arranged no speaking tour in the interest of his campaign for reelection, came from comparative retirement last night to make two speeches in Columbus in both of which he said that he was a Republican opponent, and pointed out the accomplishment of his own administration.

A "deadly parallel" to be used by Democrats during the remainder of the campaign, made its first appearance last night. "Parallel" is the comparative statement of the record of the Donahay and Davis administration. These figures show the Davis administration have expended a much greater amount than has been spent under the Donahay regime, with the Davis administration realizing lesser results.

In this matter of foreign affairs, said the speaker later in his address, "I do entertain a profound conviction that for the last five years America has been on the wrong road and that it is a road fraught not only with neglect of her duty, but with danger to her cardinal and her individual interests."

MAN SOUGHT AS TRAIN WRECKER

Engineer Killed, 15 Passengers Hurt in B. &amp; O Smashup

AVISON, Ill. — (By Associated Press) — Railroad officials today were searching for an unidentified negro for questioning in connection with the wrecking of a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train number 12 eastbound here last night which resulted in the death of C. Van Allen, 50, of Washington, Ind., the engineer, and the injury of about fifteen passengers. The train ran into an open switch, the engine and several cars leaving the rails.

Railroad officials who immediately began an investigation into the wreck said they learned that the members of the crew, who left the scene, threatened to "get" the brakeman, they said.

A work train passed safely over the switch an hour previous to the wreck, according to the officials, and as there was nothing wrong with it at that time they said they were at a loss to explain why it was open later unless the negro had pulled it, as a means of carrying out his threat.

WARNING GIVEN BY COOLIDGE

U. S. Will Make up Own Mind, President Says

SPEAKS ON FOREIGN POLICY

Executive Dedicates Monument to War Dead

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — In the presence of veterans of the First Division of the American Expeditionary Forces President Coolidge dedicated a monument to their dead here today as a "lesson of the supreme blessing of peace with honor, a symbol of stern warning."

The peace now established must be nourished, the president declared in this country's international relations. The constitution itself still must be defended, he said, to preserve individual freedom from non-interference with the courts and fair opportunity by the government of government monopolies in business.

FOREIGN RELATIONS — While recalling his wish for American membership in the world court and further disarmament, the president warned in reference to the country's international relations that "we do not propose to entrust to any other power or combination of powers any authority to make up our own mind for us."

Thousands of veterans of the world war were gathered at the base of the newly erected monument near the White House while General Pershing joined with the president in dedicating the part played by the First Division in the war.

Tracing the history of the division, "the first to enter France and the last to leave Germany," Mr. Coolidge recalled that the death of C. Van Allen, 50, of Washington, Ind., the engineer, and the injury of about fifteen passengers. The train ran into an open switch, the engine and several cars leaving the rails.

Railroad officials who immediately began an investigation into the wreck said they learned that the members of the crew, who left the scene, threatened to "get" the brakeman, they said.

DISCUSSING THE nation's obligations to its war veterans, the president reiterated that its first duty was the care of the disabled and dependents.

For these he declared, the government has been most liberal, mentioning the hospitalization program, the rehabilitation program, the 4,000 veterans now and 80,000 others "who have completed these courses and have been placed in profitable employment" and the pension laws for widows and mothers.

The nation has appropriated about $1,000,000,000 for veterans of the world war and is spending about $100,000,000 annually for veterans of the Civil War. Mr. Coolidge said, but added that the "abiding honor which America bestows upon its loyal defenders cannot be measured in money."

"The nation recognizes towards them all a debt which it can never repay, but which it will never repudiate," the president said.

"Standing to their credit will forever be an inexhaustible balance of gratitude, of honor and of praise."

In his discussion of international affairs Mr. Coolidge pointed to the accomplishments of the Dawes plan in promoting the revival of Europe which he said "lays a firmer foundation for industrial prosperity and a more secure peace."

"We want to see the allies paid," he continued, "we want to see Germany restored to a condition of productivity and progress under which she will be able to take up the burden of civilization."

PEACE TREATIES — "We cannot claim that under our institutions we have reached perfection, but we are justified in saying that our institutions are the best for the promotion of human welfare that the ingenuity of man has ever been able to devise. We cannot claim that our government is perfect, but we have the right to believe that it is the best that there is. We do not claim we have been able to discharge our full duty towards the other nations of the earth but we have a right to believe that we have been the most effective agency in helping to restore Europe."

"In this process I am well aware there is no need to urge any support of the American constitution but I cannot let the occasion pass without expressing my most strong and emphatic commendation for the reverence which your words and actions constantly express for the fundamental provisions of the fundamental law of our land."

"You want a free and fair opportunity to conduct your own business and make your way in the world without danger of being overcome by a government monopoly."

"When the government goes into business it lays a tax on everybody else that business and uses the money that it collects from its competitors to establish a monopoly and drive them out of business. No one can compete. When the government really starts into a line of business that door of opportunity is closed to the people. It has always been an American ideal that the door of opportunity should remain open."

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Prohibition officials claimed to have uncovered a gigantic Anglo-American rum running conspiracy, with $10,000,000 involved, when they towed into harbor today the twin screw British steamer Frederick II, with its crew of 28 men and two women under armed guard and with a $500,000 liquor cargo aboard.

Five special government agents under leadership of W. A. Walker, Washington, general field superintendent of the dry forces, made the capture after they had, according to Walker, "dickered for the purchase of 25,000 cases of whisky from the vessel's master, paying $100,000 in currency and checks for the contraband. Bankers in this country, England and Canada were concerned in the conspiracy, Walker said."

Proceedings instituted against Jack O'Mally, detective and former sergeant of Canadian Royal Mounted Police, charging him with theft of $40 from the Timmerman Motor Sales Co., were dismissed when the case was called for trial Friday before Justice of the Peace Watkins.

O'Mally is said to have collected the money and retained it to apply on commissions alleged to be due him from the concern. He has threatened to file suit for the balance.

OHIO DRY LEAGUE ATTACKED

Illegal Prosecution of Ex-Sheriff of Franklin Co Charged

CRABBE TO BE QUIZZED

Former Official Accused of Violating Prohibition Act

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — The Ohio Anti-Saloon League today stood charged with illegal prosecution of former Sheriff Frank Holycross of Franklin Co., whose trial on charges of illegal possession and transportation of liquor was yesterday postponed until October 1, when prosecution asked for a continuance because of absence of witnesses.

CONTINUANCE FOUGHT — Vigorously opposing the motion for a continuance, attorneys for Holycross charged that T. B. Jarvis, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League and acting as prosecutor in the Holycross hearing before Justice A. C. Kuhn at Bexley, was in the case without authority and in violation of the state code. The attorneys also asserted that the prosecution was in reality "persecution" and summoned Attorney General C. C. Crabbe as a witness. They demanded to know by what authority Jarvis was handling the prosecution for the state. Jarvis asserted that he had been appointed by State Prohibition Commissioner McDonald, however, denied that he had made the appointment, saying that he had merely said "it would be all right."

Over the long distance telephone last night from Absidon, in Sonora, General Crabbe stated that he had not appointed Jarvis as prosecutor and knew nothing about the matter. The attorney general's assistants also disclaimed any knowledge of the manner by which Jarvis became the state's prosecutor in the present case.

Holycross' attorneys said in court yesterday that if the attorney general testified that he had not appointed Jarvis they would probably ask that the case be dismissed on the grounds of illegal prosecution.

The former sheriff resigned several weeks ago, effective October 1, after a long series of controversies with the Anti-Saloon League and the state prohibition department.

Witnesses on Wednesday, the opening day of the trial, testified that Holycross had been "framed" by two agents of the prohibition department, with the knowledge of Frank Evans, assistant prohibition director.

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Prohibition officials claimed to have uncovered a gigantic Anglo-American rum running conspiracy, with $10,000,000 involved, when they towed into harbor today the twin screw British steamer Frederick II, with its crew of 28 men and two women under armed guard and with a $500,000 liquor cargo aboard.

Five special government agents under leadership of W. A. Walker, Washington, general field superintendent of the dry forces, made the capture after they had, according to Walker, "dickered for the purchase of 25,000 cases of whisky from the vessel's master, paying $100,000 in currency and checks for the contraband. Bankers in this country, England and Canada were concerned in the conspiracy, Walker said."

Proceedings instituted against Jack O'Mally, detective and former sergeant of Canadian Royal Mounted Police, charging him with theft of $40 from the Timmerman Motor Sales Co., were dismissed when the case was called for trial Friday before Justice of the Peace Watkins.

O'Mally is said to have collected the money and retained it to apply on commissions alleged to be due him from the concern. He has threatened to file suit for the balance.

HUGHES SPEAKS AT CINCINNATI TONIGHT

CINCINNATI — A capacity crowd will greet Charles E. Hughes, secretary of state, when he opens the Republican national campaign in Ohio in an address here tonight, heavy demand for tickets indicated.

Hughes will be introduced by Harry J. Davis, Republican candidate for governor.

Hughes will discuss the platform of the Ohio leading candidates for president, he indicated in a telegram to Cincinnati published today.

His address will be radioed in delegations of prominent Republicans from upstate Ohio arriving in Cincinnati on every train.

LETTING CORN — ST. LOUIS — (Special) — Corn, mostly for seed, is being harvested in considerable volume in Western Australia and other countries. The average moisture content of a lot of corn is 15 percent. The crop is gradually ripening under the moderate temperature and lack of frost.

CONTINUANCE FOUGHT — Vigorously opposing the motion for a continuance, attorneys for Holycross charged that T. B. Jarvis, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League and acting as prosecutor in the Holycross hearing before Justice A. C. Kuhn at Bexley, was in the case without authority and in violation of the state code. The attorneys also asserted that the prosecution was in reality "persecution" and summoned Attorney General C. C. Crabbe as a witness. They demanded to know by what authority Jarvis was handling the prosecution for the state. Jarvis asserted that he had been appointed by State Prohibition Commissioner McDonald, however, denied that he had made the appointment, saying that he had merely said "it would be all right."

Over the long distance telephone last night from Absidon, in Sonora, General Crabbe stated that he had not appointed Jarvis as prosecutor and knew nothing about the matter. The attorney general's assistants also disclaimed any knowledge of the manner by which Jarvis became the state's prosecutor in the present case.

Holycross' attorneys said in court yesterday that if the attorney general testified that he had not appointed Jarvis they would probably ask that the case be dismissed on the grounds of illegal prosecution.

The former sheriff resigned several weeks ago, effective October 1, after a long series of controversies with the Anti-Saloon League and the state prohibition department.

Witnesses on Wednesday, the opening day of the trial, testified that Holycross had been "framed" by two agents of the prohibition department, with the knowledge of Frank Evans, assistant prohibition director.

WASHINGTON BELIEVES JOHNSON WILL BEAT GIANTS

ENDLESS LINE SEEKS ADMISSION TO GAME

BY FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

OUTSIDE GRIFFITH STADIUM, WASHINGTON—Far as the eye could see thru the swirling early mists from the Potomac stretched a seemingly endless line of humanity. Its head was pressed against the bleacher gates, its tail gathering fans like a vacuum cleaner, sucking them from every street and street car, from flivvers and a hundred fancier vehicles, drawing them with the irresistible lure of Washington's first world series.

The present series may set no new records for baseball but those for enthusiastic fandom already are shattered beyond repair.

They came from every quarter of the city and from every corner of the land, these dyed-in-the-wool and shivering in the early morn'g fans, waiting for the bleacher gates to open.

By 8 a. m. there was 3,000 of them—an hour before the gates opened. The line was so long that the old bleachers were to receive them in the first frantic rush.

It was a colorful throng. At last very third one in line was colored.

The first man in line—he had been there since 12:30 p. m. Friday—was Charles W. Bell, an employee of the veterans' bureau, wearing a blue nose from out his turned up coat collar, he picked the Nationals (as they insist on calling the Senators down here) to win.

To Fort Wayne, Ind., went the honor of supplying the second man in line, G. H. Hovnan, 112, was from Washington.

Ten came three from Charleston, S. C. P. C. Byers, J. J. Haine, and John Jennings. And they too were for Washington.

On soap boxes and camp stools with improvised entertainment and nondescript nourishment, these harder of the enthusiasts sat through. Behind them crowded innumerable others. The line grew. Like a living serpent with vertebra a fan—red hot inside and darned cold outside—it wound down one street, around a corner and up another.

START A SECOND LINE
By the time it had meandered half a dozen blocks in this fashion with the last man almost as far away from the gates as the first, the line had started, someone thought himself to start another line.

A little way down the first line went E. M. Marston and M. L. Lebacker who came all the way from Portland, Oregon to see Walter Johnson pitch. Behind them was a 74-year old farmer from Salisbury, Md., here for the same purpose. Everybody seemed to be rooting for the home team. They were so loyal they blessed the must and whiskers because it would make things better for Johnson's fast ball.

It hadn't been for "one eye" Campbell who "crashed" and was arrested and released when he established his identity. New York reporters would have been practically nonexistent.

GIANTS HAVE FEW FRIENDS
Down around the hotel lobbies, where visiting fandom was beginning to stir to wakefulness, however the Giants had some friends.

If there was any other business to do here with the ball game, it was not mentioned.

One awake, Washington recalled a college town during old days.

There was "Gabby" Street who was Walter Johnson's first catcher, and who won the game with his greatest feat.

There was "Gaby" Street who was Walter Johnson's first catcher, and who won the game with his greatest feat.

THEY WON PENNANT FOR WASHINGTON BACK IN 1885

Washington once idolized these men as it does "Buck" Harris and his boys today. They, too, won a pennant for it—the capital's first, and its only one until the Senators came home from Boston the other day. But that was back in 1885 when the great national pastime was still in its infancy. They called the team the "National Base Ball Club" in those days. ### Local Grid Teams All Busy

All three football teams representing Lima high schools are scheduled to get under way against comparatively weak opponents Saturday afternoon.

Lima Central first team is to meet Kenton H. at College Field in the only home game of the afternoon. The game is booked to begin at 2:30 p. m. Lineup announced by Coach Young Saturday morning is as follows: Henderson, lg; Mitchell, lt; Cratty, lc; Yingling, c; Weaver, rg; Clapper, rt; MacDonald, rg; Cohn, qb; Van Horn, lb; Maginn, rb; Herbert, qb; Means, fb. Herbert will start the game unless his physician orders him to keep out of the contest because of an injury to his hip he received last week at Bucyrus.

Coach Galbreath took 19 South gridders with him to Wapakoneta where the team will meet Blume H. of Wapak. The lineup Galbreath will use is as follows: Guy, lg; Workman, lt; Miner, lg; Rutledge, c; Gobel, rg; Vastano, rt; Shope, rt; Wallace or Heitzman, rg; Barthold, qb; J. Bowers, lb; B. Bowers or Wright, rb; Wren, fb.

Vastano will probably get the call over Shope to start at right tackle, Galbreath said, but because of an injury to one of his toes Vastano may not get to play the whole game. While in the dressing room after Thursday's practice a bench fell on Vastano's foot, causing a nail to be torn loose out of one of his toes. This hinders his running somewhat, but it is believed he can get thru the game in good order. Wallace still has a bad ankle, but he will probably start at end. If not Heitzman will take that position. The right half position will be a fight between Vastano, Bowers, a brother of "Joe" who plays left half, and Harold Wright, who has been showing up well in practice sessions. Either is likely to start the game.

Central second team will play at Columbus Grove, meeting Columbus Grove H. there. Last week the second-stringers lost to Pandora, 29 to 0.

The Giants will be awaiting the reaction of a crowd which has been expected to be large.

When these big moments are poured into the test tube of Griffith stadium, baseball will know its hottest point of suspense and the voice of the public will render its first opinion on the scandal which has inflamed dormant animosities within the game's ranks.

GIANTS WORRIED
The reception given to the New York players may well be, in the opinion of many observers, the turning point of the series. The Giants are palpably harassed, worried, on edge, under a veneer of carelessness; they have been warned by McGraw of the probability of an unfriendly crowd; they may jump into depression or climb to the heights of their known courage.

The game itself attracts as no other world series contest has in recent years. The emotional element involved in the fight between the two teams is such that the game will be watched by the millions.

AS A MATTER OF FACT

Being a Criticism of the Just and the Unjust in the World of Professional and Amateur Sports

BY MARY MAGDOUR

I have often wondered why Billy Southworth was so well and favorably known in Lima, and the same Bill whom John McGraw declared after he had completed a deal with the Boston club, was one of the greatest outfielders in the game, would bolster the strength of his team by a goodly percent, has had such a disastrous season. Word to the effect that after Southworth was injured in a game in the early part of the season and McGraw without a reliable substitute was forced to send Wilson, a raw recruit in his place is also true. But it is not young fellow made more than good, by a whole lot of Ben Davis.

That Wilson was a better player than Southworth. The story made good copy for the newspapers, but it only goes to prove that one should be "sure you're right, then go ahead." The truth of the matter is that Bill was hurt more seriously than at first supposed, and in a letter from him received a day or so ago, he speaks very complacently of John McGraw as a manager, and says he's the best ever. And then he goes on to explain why he has been unable to play. He has developed some affliction of the throat, with the double complication of a "gimpy leg." With the world's series over, he states that he will undergo a surgical operation and after that will set into shape to take part in the Annapolis-Alton county championship.

WOULD RATHER PLAY IN LIMA THAN ANYWHERE
Funny when you figure all the ins and outs but Billy Southworth had missed a King a typical show-stopping catch. Delphos would have won, and he, it said, that there wasn't a half dozen fielders playing in the great national pastime who could have made it. Leave it to McGraw, he knows a ball player when he sees one, and he made no mistake when he complimented Billy Southworth.

SAME THING OVER AGAIN
There is no interest deep down in the supply of human emotion, that sets the public thronging quite so hard as a real honest to goodness ball game. A world's series is an ice cream social in comparison. There is more than just an accumulation of American Eagles on gold and silver and paper, in a real old four corners baseball match. You don't have to wait in line for twenty-four or thirty-six hours while the gentle rain from Heaven is doing lavatory to the only real, decent suit on the lot to get in among a million strangers to see Babe Ruth take a home run. Unadmittedly, a spontaneous and innocent joy is as natural as a baby pulling its mother's hair, when Bill Spivak's hands on the adding trade mark on a home run get under the speed limit at one of these ball games.

AND HERE IS WHERE YOU GET BASEBALL STARS
And from just such places as Perkins' Corners, where you can get your Cornbys, Coobys, Roushs and nine out of ten of the others who have left their mark in the book of baseball. # STOCK TREND IS UPWARD

Trading is characterized by Rallying - Tendencies
MARKET FIRM AT CLOSE

Opening Prices Heavy But Advance Soon Follows

NEW YORK (By Associated Press) — Rallying tendencies characterized today's stock market. Opening prices were heavy on continuation of yesterday's selling which was attributed to political developments, but most offerings were well absorbed and the market was not long in heading upward again.

However, soft spots were not entirely eliminated, substantial recessions taking place in Illinois Central, International Paper and Kresge Department Stores. Good buying was noted in the food, motor and public utility issues, Cuyamel Fruit, National Biscuits, American Water Works, Jordan Motor, General Motors, Suburban, Van American B., Atlantic Refining, Famous Players, Dupont and St. Joseph Lead being among the heavy issues to sell a point or more above yesterday's final prices.

SKULL FRACTURE REVEALED

Underwood, County Prisoner, Will Be Released

Examination of L. N. Underwood, indicted for assaulting his wife, held at the county jail last Friday by physicians, revealed that the man is suffering a fracture of the skull. Prosecuting Attorney Lippincott announced. He remembers the fall from a high scaffold at Columbus two years ago, but told the doctors that he paid no attention to the matter and never quit work.

Physicians are unable to say whether or not the savage mood and disposition of the defendant is the direct cause of the injury or not.

It is probable that he will be taken to a local hospital for treatment, and the fractured bones adjusted to relieve pressure on the brain.

AFTER AN OPERATION

Mrs. Wilke Couldn't Get Back Her Strength Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Rochester, Minn.—"I had a very serious operation and it seemed as if I could not get my health back after it. I suffered with pain almost constantly. My sister came to help take care of me, and she was taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nervousness and a run-down condition. She had me try some of it, and in a few days I began to feel better. In two weeks I hardly knew myself and after taking a couple of bottles more I was up and helping around, and now I am strong and healthy again and am still taking it. It is a pleasure for me to write this to you, and I hope that many other women who are suffering like I was will find out about your medicine. I will give any information I possibly can."—Mrs. JAMES WILKE, 933 E. Center Street, Rochester, Minnesota.

Remember, the Vegetable Compound has a record of fifty years of success among American women.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.
